Voluntary Student Activities of a Religious Nature in Schools

Dear Parent/Carer,

A number of students at Homebush Boys High School voluntarily participate in prayer groups. These groups meet weekly during lunch breaks and are supervised by Homebush Boys High School staff. In accordance with Department of Education policy, visiting group leaders undergo all appropriate child protection checks and practices and the content of the activities is regularly monitored.

Following are details of the voluntary groups of a religious nature, which operate at Homebush Boys High School:

- "The Edge" Christian group meet once a week. This group is supervised by Homebush Boys High School staff.
- Muslim Prayer group meet every day during lunchtime. This group is supervised by Homebush Boys High School staff.

The Department of Education's Religious Education Implementation Procedures (2015) requires parental permission for students who participate in voluntary student activities of a religious nature in schools, including prayer groups. The procedures can be accessed through the following link:

https://www.det.nsw.edu.au/policies/curriculum/schools/spec\_religious/implementation\_1\_PD20020074.shtml?level=

Before participating in these activities, a student must complete the tear-off permission slip below, signed by a parent or carer, and return to the front office. The school will maintain a list of all students from whom a permission note has been received. Permission will remain effective unless a letter of withdrawal is received from the student's parent or carer.

Should you have any enquiries in relation to this letter, please contact Mr Elgood, School Principal, at school on 9764 3611.

Yours sincerely,

Kevin Elgood
Principal
